

A SHORT STORY OF MYTHOLOGY

The recent Lunar Eclipse was the longest, tightest, closest Lunar Eclipse in a Century! It was also tightly conjunct Mars in sky Longitude. The previous Solar Eclipse was tightly opposing Pluto. Pluto in mythology rules the Underworld, underground, things from the ground, the dead and transformation. Mars rules over War, warriors, blood, iron, sharp objects, fire, desert heat. Mars also was the closest and brightest as seen from Earth on that same Eclipse date!

A Transformation in our relations with North Korea led to the return of our Dead Warriors from the ground, while Fires ravage California and Greece and Heat Waves scorch the U.S. and deadliest Heat Waves badger South Korea and China.

“Hall named the two satellites for the sons of the Greek god of war, Ares (Mars to the Romans). The twin boys, Phobos (Fear) and Deimos (Dread or Panic), attended their father in battle.”

Oddly, the greatest current exemplification of Fear, Dread or Panic is the epidemic of symptoms relating to or producing irrational reactions against the U.S. Presidency. It is mentioned daily in newspapers, on TV and online (many examples on YouTube). Here are some choice tidbits:

It does not take a huge imagination to notice the startling synchronicity of events in sky and Earth!
