

HOW DID OUR DECEMBER CRAWFORD PERSPECTIVES TURN OUT?

How our reflections this page last month worked out: “From the looks of these patterns, we would not be surprised to see a strong gap down through these lows, today or within the next few days. [Closed below October lows and Feb lows on December 14] We are concerned about possible negative reactions around the FOMC, 2 pm EST on the 19th [19th-351.98; 20th -464.06; 21st-414.23] and also aspects relating to Monday, December 24 [24th-653.17] (Christmas Eve day).”
